SUBJECT: THE UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE (USPTO) GIPA
ENFORCEMENT OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS COPYRIGHT PROGRAM,
AUGUST 6-9, 2007, ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA

REF: A) SECSTATE 83242

¶1. (U) Post nominates Mr. Georgi Damyanov and Mr. Bisser Yankov, of the Bulgarian Ministry of Culture, Copyright Directorate, for USPTO GIPA training scheduled for August 6-9, 2007(per reftel). Mr. Damyanov has been Head of the Copyright Directorate at the Ministry of Culture since 2002. Before that, he worked as head of the Distribution Department at the Copyright Agency and was the director of the Musicator and Equipex companies. In his present capacity, Damyanov is responsible for overseeing the process of formulating, coordinating and implementing the government policies on copyright issues. His directorate takes the lead in IPR enforcement with regard to copyright legislation: conducts inspections, imposes fines and issues expert opinions against copyright violators.

¶2. (U) Mr. Bisser Yankov has been with the Copyright Directorate at the Ministry of Culture since 2002. In his capacity as a senior legal adviser, Yankov is responsible for arguing copyright cases in court, drawing up statements against copyright infringements, etc. Yankov serves as a secretary of Working Group 18 which has introduced the EU copyright regulations in Bulgaria, and is a representative for the Ministry in the international IPR organizations. In 2003-2005, Mr. Yankov has been Ministry's point of contact for the EU PHARE-funded project for building a national IPR database network.

¶3. (U) Post believes in the strong professional skills of the two nominations under this program. The Bulgarian candidate(s) are unlikely to travel without funding assistance. Post respectfully requests USPTO funding for per diem, visa charges, lodging, and U.S. ground transportation. We greatly appreciate USPTO's efforts with this program.
